SATURDAY WORKSHOP A (1:30 - 3:15 PM) -
"Music Made Visible" (For All)

Imogen Holst wrote that the dance is "music made visible." The English country dance is unique for the wide variety of musical forms that have been used. We enjoy several, with many examples from the new CD of Gary Roodman's dances, "Band of Friends."

Princess Royal (English traditional, unusual phrase length)

Alexander's Birthday (G. Roodman, Renaissance dance)

Hand in Hand (G. Roodman, triple time: historical 3/2 hornpipe)

Felicity (C. Hume, triple time: swing waltz)

Say I Do (G. Roodman, English cake walk, mixed genres)

When Laura Smiles (O. Krasner, triple time: Elizabethan lute song, with unusual phrase length)

SATURDAY WORKSHOP B (3:30 - 4:30 PM) -
"Structure Made Invisible" (For All)

Dances old and new with clever transitions and progressions that delight the mind and spirit and that create the sense of seamless flow prized by English country dancers in America.

The Astonished Archaeologist (P. Callens)

Laura's Waltz (C. Stenger & D. Macemon)
