

Across the Lake 2017 – Lodging Suggestions

Hotels, Motels, and B&B: Note that Burlington and environs are a year-round tourist area. If you wait til the last minute to make arrangements, you may spend over $150 per night in a hotel several towns away. There are usually several major events happening on our dance weekend, which drive room prices up. Rooms will fill fast; the earlier you make your reservations, the better. The hotels and B&B are within 10 min. driving time to Elley-Long Music Center (our dance hall). Cars, not feet, are best for getting around. Most hotels have heated pools; all have free parking.

SPECIAL ACROSS THE LAKE RATES? At Baymont Inn in Essex Junction, plus Days Inn, Quality Inn, & Motel 6 in Colchester. Baymont is closest to dance hall (1 mi.), then Days Inn (1.8 mi.), then others (3 mi.)

LOWER PRICES? You may find better rates online at Priceline, Travelocity, or a hotel's website (often true for Motel 6). You may get a good discount if you reserve & pay for a block of rooms w/ your credit card.

OTHER OPTIONS? Try www.vrbo.com or www.homeaway.com or www.airbnb.com.

ACROSS THE LAKE ~ JUNE 9, 10, 11, 2017

English Country Dance Weekend on the Vermont side of Lake Champlain

THINGS TO DO IN THE AREA

Additional events for the Burlington, VT area can be viewed in the calendar section of www.sevendaysvt.com

If you're a bicyclist, Burlington boasts a wonderful bike path. Rentals are available on/near the Waterfront through a non-profit called Local Motion and also from nearby bike shops on lower Main Street. The paths are nice for walking, too; you just won't cover as much ground. Especially scenic is the bike path that goes from the Burlington Waterfront to Colchester and onto "the causeway": an old railroad bed that stretches across Lake Champlain towards South Hero. Info at www.localmotion.org A bike ferry carries cyclists & pedestrians across the Colchester causeway's "Cut", a 200 ft gap, but service is limited to Fri., Sat., Sun., holidays May 26-June 11, 10am to 6pm— prices, schedule, etc. at <http://www.localmotion.org/programs/islandline/bike-ferry>

Burlington Farmers' Market

www.burlingtonfarmersmarket.org

City Hall Park, Burlington, VT

Sat. June 10, 8:30am to 2pm (and all Saturdays from Mother's Day weekend to the last Saturday in October). It's THE place to buy or browse produce, ready-to-eat food (lots of interesting and ethnic food vendors make for great & very reasonably priced lunch grazing), plants, cut flowers, locally-made crafts (ceramics, jewelry, stained glass, Dug Nap's unusual art, to name a few offerings). Vibrant and fun. City Hall Park is bounded by these streets: Main, St. Paul, College, and Church.

Wake Robin Annual Tag Sale & Book Sale

www.wakerobin.com

200 Wake Robin Drive, Shelburne, VT

Sat. June 10, 9am to 2pm. This upscale retirement community prides itself on making their tag sale a pleasurable experience. (Where else are you offered a cup of coffee while waiting in line?) Treasures await, so get there early! Say hello to Wake Robin residents who attend a weekly English country dance class. Perhaps you've read about their success with the dance John Tallis's Canon ... in the CDSS News! Directions: From Elley-Long Music Center, go R onto Route 15 West. Take I-89 south to Exit 13. Stay in left lane, go left at light onto Route 7 South. Continue on Route 7 South through village of Shelburne. After Shelburne Museum, turn right at light onto Bostwick Road. Proceed 1 mile and turn left onto Wake Robin Dr.

Shelburne Museum

www.shelburnemuseum.org

Route 7/Shelburne Road, Shelburne, VT

Daily 10am to 5pm. 2-day ticket. Unusual museum with folk art collected by Electra Havermeier Webb. Walk across the lawn to visit a lighthouse and beautifully restored steamship (The Ticonderoga). See website for schedule of special exhibits and admission prices.

Burlington Discover Jazz Festival

www.discoverjazz.com

Downtown Burlington, various locations (mostly Church Street)

June 2-11. Daytime, 2 or more stages of live music on Church Street — often performances by local high school jazz bands. Some Church Street restaurants offer live jazz. Big names at evening concerts. Sunday gospel sing.

Revised 2/28/2017
