OUR TEACHERS

Graham Christian has taught English country dance since 2000 for clubs, festivals, camps, and series across the United States, as well as Canada, Holland, Belgium, and England. He is the author of the acclaimed CDSS Centennial publication, The Playford Assembly, as well as the continuing column on dance history, Tell Me More. He is a stage director, choreographer, musician, and writer; his collaborative art song series, Songs and Serenades, addressing music from Handel to Barber, is in its fourth year. He is known for clear instruction and prompting, as well as richly varied programs that please musicians and dancers alike.

Mary Jones, long known for her irreverent humor, has been teaching and calling English country dance for nearly 25 years. Besides being on the Amherst, MA ECD calling roster, Mary has a continuing Beginner ECD class that runs each spring and fall, helping to strengthen the local dance community. In addition, she brings her cheery skills to many venues: Binghamton, Albany, The Flurry, and the 2016 & 2017 Whately Balls to name a few. Mary lives in Turners Falls, MA.

OUR SOUND MAN

Dereck Kalish has been contra dancing since 2005 and going to local dances in New England, mostly the Boston area, just about every week. Around 2011, Dereck became both a caller and sound engineer, traveling throughout New England with a focus on providing the best service possible to make for a fun and successful dance.

Dereck has a strong background in the arts. In high school, he studied classical piano. After graduation, he attended art school and received a degree in fine arts, with a concentration in sound and sculpture.

In 2016, Dereck joined the NEFFA Thursday Night Dance Committee. He is also the Director of NEFFA's Sound Committee.

When he's not dancing, calling, or running sound, Dereck enjoys working part-time as an Electronics Technician / fabricator for a high-tech art design studio, co-hosting (since 2010) a weekly podcast (for which he is also the audio engineer), gaming, and playing tennis.

OUR MUSICIANS ~ BARE NECESSITIES

Kate Barnes has been playing piano, flute and assorted other instruments for traditional dancing since 1971, and has been invited to most major contra, square, British Isles and vintage dance events throughout the United States, performing for dances and concerts, leading ensemble workshops, and generally acting in a crazy and often undignified manner. Averaging over 250 engagements per year since 1980, she is arguably one of New England's busiest musicians, and has also played for festivals and tours in England, France, Denmark, Shetland, Scotland and Czechoslovakia. She works with the bands The Latter-Day Lizards, Bare Necessities, Third String Trio, Yankee Ingenuity, Big Bandemonium, Dark Carnival, Crazy Quilt, and The Dactyls and has performed with many traditional greats including Seamus Connolly, Joe Derrane, Cathie Ryan, Chris Norman, Alasdair Fraser, Rodney Miller, and Joe Cormier.

Publications include English Country Dance Tunes (Volumes One and Two), a widely used collection of English traditional dance music, A Little Couple Dancemusik, a collection of 400 traditional couple dance tunes, and Interview With A Vamper, an instruction book of piano techniques. See www.canispublishing.com to order.

Recordings include Sous le Ciel de Paris with Third String Trio, Sleeping On a Rock with The Latter Day Lizards, Kitchen Junket and Heatin' Up The Hall with Yankee Ingenuity, Bare Necessities, Take A Dance, Nightcap and at least 10 others in the Boston CDS Centre Dance Series with Bare Necessities, Airplang and Airplang II with Rodney Miller, BLT (Barnes, Lea & Tomczak), Soir et Matin with Kerry Elkin, Yankee Dreams and Moxie with Frank Ferrell, Shape Shifting with Jeanne Morrill, Cascata de Lagrimas, Between Two Worlds and Gypsy Wine with Mary Lea, and Twelve-Gated City, The Great Waltz and Childsplay: Live with Childsplay.

Earl Gaddis was originally trained as a classical violinist, with a special passion for Baroque music. But his orientation shifted when he discovered the excitement of small-ensemble improvisation for dancers, with its unique opportunities for creating interesting harmonies, countermelodies, and rich musical textures on the spur of the moment. He is now a full-time dance musician who has been playing violin and viola for various combinations of English, Scottish, American, and international dancing for more than fifty years. He plays at dance camps, workshops, balls, festivals, and dances throughout the United States, in Canada, and abroad. As a member of Bare Necessities, Earl has made eighteen recordings of English Country Dance music so far, and he has recorded with a number of other musicians as well. He lives in great contentment on ten acres of woods in Plainwell, Michigan with his wife Sherry Brodock.

OUR MUSICIANS ~ BARE NECESSITIES

Mary Lea is a Brattleboro VT-based fiddler and violist with a national reputation for playing a wide range of dance music. Performing for dances since 1978, Mary is a founding member of Bare Necessities, known here and abroad as the benchmark of English country dance music. Her musical versatility and wide ranging musical interests are reflected in the variety of bands she has played with over the years, which include: Yankee Ingenuity and Wild Asparagus (contra dance bands), BLT, Dark Carnival and Crazy Quilt (all kinds of music), Paradiso (music from Brazil, Mexico, Argentina and France), Orijent Express (international) and the large ensemble, Childsplay. In the past 30 plus years, Mary has toured extensively throughout the United States playing for concerts, dance weeks and weekend events. She has performed with Bare Necessities and other bands in England, Canada, Scotland, Czech Republic, Greece, France, Egypt and Ecuador. Besides producing 3 solo CDs of couple dance music, Mary has played on at least 30 others, including 18 by the band, Bare Necessities. Also an experienced teacher, she has run workshops for musicians, produced concerts and organized and run dance and music weeks over the years.

Pianist Jacqueline Schwab loves inspiring people to dance and has long played for English country and many other styles of dancing. With Bare Necessities and other groups, she has played for dances and dance camps throughout the US and beyond. She has also been heard on over a dozen of Ken Burns' PBS documentaries, including his Grammy award-winning Civil War, Baseball, Lewis and Clark, Mark Twain, The War, and National Parks, as well as on a number of other PBS documentaries including The Irish in America and Ric Burns' New York: A Documentary Film. She has performed at the White House for President Clinton (celebrating Burns' Lewis and Clark series) and also with Scottish singer Jean Redpath on public radio's A Prairie Home Companion and CBS's Late Show with David Letterman. She has recorded and performed with Bare Necessities, Scottish fiddlers Alasdair Fraser and Laura Risk, singer Jean Redpath, and others. She currently performs solo concerts of vintage American music and traditional Celtic and English music throughout the US. Jacqueline has four solo recordings: Mad Robin, Down Came an Angel, Mark Twain's America and her recently-released True Blue Waltz. Other recent recordings include three recordings of Civil War-era music and In Klezmer, with Cape Cod clarinetist Clayton March. She also enjoys teaching piano and improvisation and leading English dancing. She is a graduate of New England Conservatory of Music, where she majored in piano improvisation. Jacqueline lives on Cape Cod. For more information, see www.Jacquelineschwab.com.
